While driving their new Dodge car last Friday evening, Mrs. Fred Karach lost control of the machine at the crossing of College avenue and "A" street, causing it to run into a fire plug on the corner, the heavy shock breaking the windshield and the flying glass cutting a gash in Mrs. Karach's forehead, also cutting the face of her mother, Mrs. Sackman, who was driving with her. Walter Blomeyer, who chanced to be passing, was also struck by the car, and thrown onto the Lee porch, sustaining a dislocated thumb.

ST. LOUIS LIVE STOCK MARKET Aug. 16, 1921.

Today's Receipts

Cattle ..... 4,000

Calves ..... 2,000

Hogs ..... 9,000

Sheep ..... 3,000

CATTLE.—The influx of western range cattle and Texas grass cattle continues liberal, but despite this the market for the week thus far shows little relative price change, and offerings are selling readily at prices steady with the close of the previous week.

Choice corn-fed cattle are exceedingly scarce, and there is considerably more demand for these kind than for the run of grass and medium fleshed cattle, which make up the bulk of the receipts.

Beef steers, $5 to $10; corn fed butcher cattle, $8 to $10.25; grass butcher cattle, $4 to $8; beef cows, $4 to $6.50; cutters, $3 to $4; canners, $2 to $2.50; beef bulls, $4.50 to $5.25; sausage bulls, $3 to $4; feeders, $6 to $7; stockers, $2.50 to $3.50; stock cows, $3 to $3.50; stock heifers, $4 to $5.

HOG.—Receipts were moderate but the available supply was more than ample for trade requirements, due to the fact that inquiries from the packers were limited in volume, in fact, so much so that the trading was fully 30c to 40c lower than last week's close, early top making $10.65, but with the dullness throughout the session, the finish of the market was a flat 50c lower, late top $10.50.

During the day the bulk of the good 160 to 215 pound hogs sold at $10.50 to $10.60; 220 to 240 pounds, at $10.15 to $10.40; 250 to 300 pounds, at $9.50 to $10. Pigs, 130 to 160 pounds, sold at $10 to $10.65; 160 to 180 pounds, at $10.25 to $10; lighter pigs, at $7.25 to $9.25. Packers, $7.75 to $8.00.

Mrs. G. O. Nations returned from Washington, D. C., the last of the week, where she had spent six months with her husband, who is stationed there. Mrs. Nations' son left immediately after her return to assist his father in his work.

J. C. Williams, who has been spending much of his time the past few months in looking after his farm at Bricey's Landing, came in the first of the week and left yesterday for Mineral Wells, Texas, where he will take another course of baths for his health.

A telegram was received on August 13th from Norman J. Goeltz, by his parents in Bismarck, stating that he had just arrived in Philadelphia, and a letter from him has later been received bearing the good news that he will arrive home about the 27th inst.

Tom Burnette returned the last of the week from a prospecting trip to Denver, Colorado Springs and other points in Colorado. He says he saw much country and many people he liked, but nothing in comparison with what he knows is in this immediate locality, which, we judge, should be taken to mean that he intends remaining here.

The Third Annual "Get-Together Picnic" of Southeast Missourians will be held in Forest Park, St. Louis, on next Saturday, August 20th. Mayor Kiel, W. Frank Carter, Chas. M. Hay and others are advertised for speeches, and all Southeast Missourians are cordially invited to be present. Different amusements are announced for the occasion.

Miss Wilhelmina Herwig, whose late resignation from the high school corps as teacher of English called forth so many expressions of regret, has decided to reconsider her action and will accept her former position, at least for another term. She has very unusual qualifications as a teacher and the Board of Education, as well as all patrons of the Farmington schools are to be congratulated on Miss Herwig's change of plans.

Miss Mame Thomas will leave Saturday to take her invalid sister to Colorado in the hope of benefiting her health. For several months past Miss Thomas has conducted the Thomas Sisters millinery under great disadvantages, while looking after her sister, who has been in a hospital most of the time since they located here. She says it is with deepest regret that she leaves Farmington, as she likes the place and the people fine, but her first duty is to try and restore her sister to health.

JETT-TRAUERNICHT

A pretty home wedding took place at high noon yesterday when Miss Louise Trauernicht, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Trauernicht of this city, became the bride of Mr. Daniel B. Jett, of Poplar Bluff.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. Hallerberg, of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, before an altar of ferns and cut flowers. Miss Freda Marie Trauernicht, sister of the bride, rendered Lohengrin's Wedding March. Only members of the immediate family were in attendance. The home was tastefully decorated with cut flowers and plants carrying the color scheme of white and pink.

The bride wore a white net gown over white satin and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Trauernicht is a graduate of the Farmington High School and of the Southeast Missouri State Teachers' College of Cape Girardeau, and has for several years followed the profession of teaching, having taught in several schools in Southeast Missouri and in the high schools at Wyconda, Doe Run and Puxico.

Mr. Jett has for the past eight years been with the Engineering Department of the Missouri Pacific railroad, excepting the period of the World War when he spent two years in France with the 12th Regiment of Engineers, U. S. A. At present Mr. Jett is on leave of absence from the Missouri Pacific and is completing the work for his degree in engineering at the Rolla School of Mines.

Mr. and Mrs. Jett departed after the ceremony for a bridal tour through the Western States. They will be at home after September 1st at Rolla.

Those attending from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. A. Jett of St. Louis, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Trauernicht and Miss Freda Marie Trauernicht of Jefferson City.

PUBLIC SCHOOL OPENING

The Board of Education has set Tuesday, Sept. 6th, for the opening of the 1921-22 school term. A full corps of teachers, including a Music and Drawing supervisor, has been elected and will be ready to begin work at the appointed time. The Board has been very fortunate in securing Miss Herwig again for the English Department in the High School. Her unqualified success in that department the two previous years she has taught there insures first class work again the coming year. The High School faculty for next year will be the same as last year except that Miss Lucy Wilson, a home economics graduate of Stephens College, will teach home economics in place of Miss Emily Matkin, who goes to Excelsior Springs, Mo.

Principal D. H. Haldaman, of the High School, spent the Summer in Southeast Missouri Teachers College, at Cape Girardeau, as did also Miss Martha Raines, teacher of Latin and French; Miss Jessamine Haile, teacher of English in the sixth, seventh and eighth grades, and Miss Elise Rickus, third and fourth grade teacher in the Jefferson school.

Miss Genevieve Haas, history instructor in the High School, attended Chicago University and carried a strong course in history under some of the famous professors of that great institution.

Mrs. Annie Lloyd, principal of Washington School; Mrs. Annie Murrell, principal of Jefferson school; Mrs. Nellie Downing, teacher in the departmental grade work, and Miss Nellie Halter of the same department attended the St. Louis Teachers College and did some very effective work therein.

The walls and interior wood work in the Washington School has been painted by one of our local decorators, Mr. Albert Hilliker, and presents a very pleasing appearance. This is the first time that any of the Farmington public schools have had paint applied to the walls instead of calcimine, and the results are so satisfactory that the use of paint will, no doubt, be continued.

The walls and interior wood work of Jefferson school building are undergoing the same treatment by Mr. Hilliker's force and will be finished within a few days. The new construction work at the Jefferson school is well under way, and the new toilet system and heating plant will be completed soon after the opening of school. The construction work there will in no way interfere with the progress of school. There is but little work to be done within the old building and that can be easily completed before the opening of school or when school is not in session.

The Douglass school has been provided with a modern, first class Smith heating system, and will be in every respect a comfortable and convenient school building.

All children becoming six years old before the fifteenth of January, 1922, should enter school promptly on the sixth of September, and all such children who do not enter within the first two weeks of the beginning of school will be required to remain out until the beginning of the second term of the school year, about the fifteenth of January. Children becoming six years old between the fifteenth of January, 1922, and May 20th of the same year may enter school on the fifteenth of January or within one week thereafter. Should they fail to do so it is an imposition on the teacher and on the other pupils of the primary room, for them to enter later, and they should be kept out until the September following. Parents with children just entering school should note this arrangement and co-operate by observing the same.

All pupils planning to enter the high school department should report at the Superintendent's office on either Friday, Sept. 2nd, or Saturday, Sept. 3rd, in order to register and arrange a program. This will enable the high school to begin work promptly on Tuesday morning, the first day of school, and to continue throughout the day. High school books will be on sale at Peity's Book Store as usual, and should, so far as possible, be obtained before the opening day of school. Ask the high school teacher with whom you register for a list of books you will need.

A meeting of all Farmington teachers will be held in room eight of the high school building on Monday morning, Sept. 5th, at 9 o'clock.

An unusually strong corps of teachers has been secured for the coming year. With very few exceptions every teacher has had experience in the kind of work she will undertake. The school room environment has been improved in every building, and conditions are most favorable for a successful school year. The progress of Farmington pupils in the past has been second to none in the state. The continued and consistent co-operation of the people of the community, the Board of Education, the teachers, and the pupils in the various schools will insure the continuation of that progress. The school management sincerely solicits that faithful co-operation, and assures the public that every plan for the improvement of the Farmington schools will receive the most careful consideration.

Very respectfully,
W. L. JOHNS, Supt.

THE HILLS OF ST. FRANCOIS

The following poem was written by G. P. Sebastian in 1865, at his home in Libertyville, and is here published from the original manuscript, which has been furnished The Times by his brother, W. P. Sebastian, of Breckenridge, Texas, who is here visiting relatives and old friends for the first time in more than forty years:

The hills of St. Francois, how proudly they rise
In the wilderness of grandeur to blend
With their far azure outlines and tall
Ancient trees,
St. Francois, my county, I love thee for these.

The vales of St. Francois that cradle the streams
And smile in their beauty like land in our dreams,
All sunny with beauty embosomed in ease;
St. Francois, my county, I love you for these.

The woods of St. Francois still verdant and high,
Though rocked by the tempest of ages gone by,
Romance dims their arches, and speaks in the breeze,
St. Francois, my county, I love thee for these.

The streams of St. Francois that roar as they go,
Or seem in their wildness but dreaming to flow;
O! bright gilda the sunbeam their march to the sea,
St. Francois, my county, I love thee for these.

The homes of St. Francois, free, for-tuned and fair,
O! many a heart treasures its seraphim there,
E'en more than thy mountains or streamlets thy plenty,
St. Francois, my county, I love thee for these.

God shield thee, St. Francois, dear land of my birth,
And thy children that wander afar on the earth;
Thou still art my county where'er I am cast,
Take thou to thy bosom my ashes at last.

Harry Pease, who is now located in St. Louis, spent Sunday and Monday with old Farmington friends.
